The license includes the full right to use the report by the hotel owner, management staff, employees and persons cooperating with the hotel, provided that the use is solely for the needs of that hotel's operations.

The report may be used in particular for analysis, planning, management, development, improvement of hotel operations and making business decisions related to that hotel.

The report, its copies, excerpts, derivative materials or data contained in it may not be transferred to third parties outside the hotel without the prior consent of the Seller.
